

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday, October 1, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

AG in N.Y. sues Ebbers

Meredith a puzzle to some, but still an icon

Still no resolution on tort bill

Delta to launch benefits system

Hurricane Lili on target to follow Isidore's path

Forrest General Hospital to lay off 94 workers to save $7.6M

Ferry service on coast canceled

Nonprofit targets voter apathy in South

Dow falls again by triple digits

Editorials

40 years later...: Ole Miss, state have progressed

Jackson State: Urban university makes its mark

Iraq: United Nations process productive

Legislative inaction costing taxpayers

So, let legislators practice medicine

Senate plan would 'immunize' industry

Patient, doctors both brave in surgery

The Sun Herald Biloxi

Lili could hit U.S. on Thursday

Please, not again!

Third Mississippi death tied to Isidore

State port could benefit from West Coast lockout

Legislative conferees express optimism on medical malpractice bill

Musgrove requests $15.3 million for Isidore damage as state eyes Lili

Forrest General Hospital lays off workers

Hurricane Lili expected to hit northwest gulf states

Robert Khayat helps Ole Miss use an old tragedy to mark a new era

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

Flood waters receding, but work remains from Isidore

'Teachers of Distinction' recognized

Six new cases of West Nile reported; Tupelo death confirmed

EDITORIAL: Congressional lawsuit reform

NE Miss. National Guard units crucial to saving Ole Miss

Legislators differ on where tort cases should be tried

Gulf Coast officials ponder disruption vs. evacuation in Isidor

EDITORIAL: 'Inherit the promises'

Amory senator plans to introduce proposal

DANNY MCKENZIE: National spotlight focused once again on us - as it should be

EDITORIAL: Teachers of Distinction represent the best

BOBBY HARRISON: Pressure falls on Senate in torts debate

CHARLIE MITCHELL: Ole Miss opts to look history right in eye

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

Toyota plant could be cure for Como's unemployed blues
State seeks $15.3 million in federal aid for storm loss

Hattiesburg American

Nearly 300 jobs cut from Forrest General

Clinic won't book patients after Dec. 31

Officials prepare for Lili's landfall

Officials apply for $40,000 to upgrade systems

Corps study will provide direction

Oppose officials who favor reform

Meridian Star

• Opponent wants Thad Cochran to withdraw from Senate race

Laurel Leader-Call

Legislative budget hearings offer moments of levity

DeSoto Times Today Hernando

The Clarksdale Press Register

Let jurors, not big business, put value on human lives

State says good riddance to paper food stamps

Ban on life-sentence paroles came too late for Prah!

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland

Low farm prices affect employment

The Delta Democrat Times Greenville

Wonder where our legislative priorities are?

Mississippians getting steam rolled by tort

Enterprise Journal McComb

Round 2: Here comes Lili

Editorials for Tuesday, Oct. 1, 2002

Charles Dunagin: Nettles defends past, eyes future

Emily Wagster: Hearing sidelights entertaining

The Natchez Democrat

Read Our View

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Musgrove asks for aid for Isidore damage

EPA could overtake state lead program

Oxford to honor soldiers that saved town during riot

Joint and several at the ballot box

Ban on 'life' paroles too late for teen

Ole Miss symbolizes change in state

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Sen Hob Bryan plans compromise bill 9/30

HUB: Senator White's resignation a frustration warning for legislators in 2003 9/30

DLEADER: State shouldn't wait on Fed tort reform fix 9/30

Forrest General Hospital cuts 94 jobs, blames legal climate 9/30

Stateline.org

The New York Times

Miss. Marks Integration Anniversary

Louisiana Preps for Hurricane Lili

The Washington Post

Miss. Marks Integration Anniversary

Louisiana Preps for Hurricane Lili

The Washington Times

Other

Miss. backs out of evacuation plan

Agencies devise I-10 flood plan